

BEVERAGE MENU

The following beverage selections represent a thoughtful and deliberate process of choice. The choices are influenced by the things that matter the most to us; those being relationships, family, sustainability and excellence. Our goal is to share the stories of why the selections are unique and special while creating lasting memories and providing exceptional service. The stories of the people and of the places are what we love to convey the most.

The wines found throughout are from classic wine regions of the world, rooted in their regions' history. Many of the selections come from small, family-owned wineries driven to produce outstanding wines that are never subjected to undue manipulation while the remainder come from importers that we consider dear friends and that have shaped the landscape of American wine culture.

Other selections include classic cocktails as well as delicious and creative signature drinks that draw inspiration from the classics with consideration to wellness and curative ingredients. In staying true to our love of locality and sustainability, the beer selections come from quality focused breweries in the south. A collection of spirits is also built-in that highlights hard to find and pedigree distillers.

As you peruse the selections, we invite you to reference the index of producer and winery anecdotes found in the back of the menu. We will be happy to use our knowledge of these products to make the best suggestions based on your preferences.

WINES BY THE GLASS

SPARKLING & WHITE WINE

CHAMPAGNE, Champagne Le Mesnil, Blanc de Blancs, Grand Cru, Brut, NV

26/130

- From the king of Champagne villages, this classic, 100% chardonnay sparkling wine is crafted by one of the best cooperatives in France. Champagne Le Mesnil got its start in 1937 and continues to ‘wow’ fine wine drinkers well into the 2000’s with its precise, but exiting balance of brioche and essence of green apple.

ROSÉ CHAMPAGNE, Henri Dosnon, Brut, NV

31/155

- Davy Dosnon has been cultivating and championing pinot noir driven champagnes since 2007 in the southernmost Champagne region of Côte des Bar. This unique rosé honors the wine making traditions of the past while boasting a fresh bouquet of orange zest, lemon peel, biscuit and light spice.

SPANISH SPARKLING, Raventós-Basagoiti, Inicial, Brut Nature, Catalonia, 2023

17/85

- This sparkling Spanish wine with notes of green apple, pear & lemon is made by one of the oldest houses in Spain. The 14th generation of the Raventos family runs the estate now and has blended indigenous grapes like Macabeu & Xarel-lo with Chardonnay & the result is a delicious cross between Champagne and Cava.

SAUVIGNON BLANC, Domaine Bailly-Reverdy, Pouilly-Fumé, 2023

18/90

- Sancerre and Pouilly-Fumé should always be crisp and refreshing and that’s exactly what you get from Bailly-Reverdy. From the limestone-rich soils of the village of Les Loges on the Loire River, this Sauvignon Blanc is fresh and lively showcasing grapefruit and citrus notes with a touch of salinity.

ALBARIÑO, Pazo Señorans, Rías Baixas, 2023

18/90

- Rías Baixas is the very best area for growing albariño with it’s salty coast line and verdant rolling hills. The owners of Pazo Señorans, Marisol and Javier, played a key role in establishing the Rías Baixas appellation in the 1980s and today they craft fresh, vibrant albariño filled with notes of salty tangerine, lime and honeydew.

CHARDONNAY, Sens3s, Heintz Vineyard, Sonoma Coast, 2023

25/125

- This boutique, high-end Sonoma County winery was founded in 2011 by three childhood friends who dedicate themselves to crafting exceptional chardonnay and pinot noir with winemaker, Thomas Rivers Brown. This chardonnay embodies golden delicious apple, nectarine, pink grapefruit and almond croissant.

VIOGNIER, Roar, Sierra Mar Vineyard, Santa Lucia Highlands, 2023

25/125

- With a love for Rhône varietals in mind, Gary Francioni of Roar planted the Sierra Mar vineyard himself in 2007. We invite you to be surprised and delighted by this unctuous and floral white wine whose grapes thrive in the rolling hills of the Santa Lucia Highlands in central California.

PINOT GRIGIO, Scarpetta, Friuli, 2023

17/85

- This beautiful and bright Pinot Grigio is brought to life by the talented hands of our good friend, Bobby Stuckey. The gravel soils of Friuli and 12 hours of maceration in stainless steel provide a subtle melon aroma and a refreshingly crisp minerality.

WINES BY THE GLASS, CONTINUED

ROSÉ AND RED WINE

ROSÉ, Domaine Des Bosquets, Gigondas, France, 2023

17/85

- Julien Brechet may have inherited his family estate in 2010, but the winery can trace it's roots back to 1376. In Gigondas, Julien's vineyards are filled with biodynamically farmed, 50 year old grenache vines and surrounded by green forests, or "bosquets". Domaine des Bosquets rosé is not for the faint of heart, it is a flavor profile harkening back to the old world with a palate of crushed minerality, crushed strawberry and mouth watering acidity making it the perfect gastronomic pairing.

SYRAH, Peay, Estate, West Sonoma Coast, 2022

25/125

- Andy, Nick and Vanessa Peay are a dynamic trio who craft great wines on the Sonoma Coast of California. Their humble estate vineyards produce wines that showcase a true sense of place and their approach to winemaking is sustainable with undue manipulation. Aromas of blueberry and fresh cracked pepper with a medium-bodied palate of deep red and black fruits.

PINOT NOIR, Hirsch, BMTN Edition, Sonoma Coast, 2021

25/125

- This Hirsch Vineyards Pinot Noir is a collaboration between famed winemaker, Jasmine Hirsch, of the Sonoma Coast and our Vice President of Food and Beverage, Andy Chabot and Director of Food and Beverage, Logan Griffin. It showcases complex aromas and flavors of bright cherry, raspberry and mushroom with a balanced and lingering finish.

CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE, Domaine de Marcoux, 2022

29/145

- The Armenier family can be traced back to the year 1000 and were the first winemakers in this area to pioneer biodynamic farming. Today, the Armenier sisters make this Grenache dominated blend from vines that are on average, 50 years old. Fresh herbs and blackberries carry this medium bodied blend to a soft finish of ripe red cherries dipped in dark chocolate and dusted with garrigue.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, Spottswoode, Lydenhurst, Napa Valley, 2021

28/140

- Mary Weber Novak and her family have organically farmed their vineyards since 1985, making them one of the first vineyards in the Napa Valley to adopt organic growing practices. The Lydenhurst label is a tribute to the fragrant linden trees that grow all over the historic Spottswoode estate. The wine boasts notes of fresh blackberries, cassis, graphite, and baking spices.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, MERLOT & SYRAH BLEND, Leviathan, California, 2022

22/110

- In 2004, Andy Erickson created Leviathan to show how great a wine can be without the restraints of appellations. Every year Erickson chooses the best grapes from each vineyard all throughout California to create this red blend bursting with flavors of boysenberry, plum, cocoa, and nutmeg.

PREMIUM WINES BY THE GLASS SERVED BY CORAVIN

SAUVIGNON BLANC, Château Lynch-Bages, Blanc de Lynch-Bages, Bordeaux, 2023 64/320

- From the producers of the world famous fifth growth reds comes this rare and prestigious “happy accident”. As the story goes, decades ago a nurseryman accidentally planted white grape vines in a corner of Château Lynch-Bages’ Pauillac estate. The winery produced white wine for itself from these vines up until 1990 when they began sharing the small amount produced (only 1000 casks annually) with the world. Expect complex flavors of white peach and florals with a texture that’s vibrant and rich.

CHARDONNAY, Domaine Della, Ritchie Vineyard, Russian River Valley, 2020 46/230

- Located at the intersection of Eastside Road and Trenton Road in sunny Sonoma, sits a fully sustainable vineyard on top of classic sandy, Goldridge soil. The vineyard has been owned and farmed by its namesake, Kent Ritchie, since the early 1970’s and only the top wineries with the most integrity are allowed to use it’s grapes. Domaine Della is the passion project of former CEO and general manager for Kosta Browne, David Hejl. Baking spice and butter express themselves on the nose while the palate lingers with ripe stone fruit and baked apple.

CHARDONNAY, Albert Bichot, Moutonne, Monopole, Chablis, Grand Cru, 2021 135/675

- The Bichot family may be on their 6th generation today, but they can trace their lineage in Burgundy back to the year 1350. Since they officially entered the wine trade in 1831 the Bichot house has won multiple “Winemaker of the Year” titles and is well known for organically farming over 100 acres in the most prestigious, sought after climats in Burgundy. Moutonne is solely owned by Domaine Long Depaquit and they graciously allow Bichot to make this elegant white wine from their vines. The wine is bursting with mineral rich clarity, peach and nectarine flavors and jasmine aromas.

PINOT NOIR, Arista, Kanzler Vineyard, Russian River Valley, 2021 70/350

- As brothers, Mark and Ben McWilliams oversee day to day operations at their beautiful Russian River Valley winery, Matt Courtney, winemaker, is busy crafting elegant, complex and silky chardonnay and pinot noir. Matt honed his craft for 8 years at Marcassin winery under the California icons, Helen Turley and John Wetlaufer. This pinot noir is driven by dark cherry, plum and a very modest amount of oak.

PINOT NOIR, Domaine De La Pousse d’Or, Le Clos Du Roi, Corton, Grand Cru, 2019 81/405

- This hallowed estate and its terroir come to life in the bottle at the hands of proprietor, Patrick Landanger. La Pousse d’Or can trace it’s history back before the French revolution, when it used to be part of Romanée-Conti and Clos de Tart. Patrick takes biodynamic practices seriously so take solace in knowing that this Grand Cru bottling was never touched by pesticides or fungicides. Ripe red fruit and notes of licorice surround a structured core and fine grained tannins.

TEMPRANILLO, Bodegas Roda, Cirsion, Rioja, 2000 94/470

- Bodegas Roda was founded in 1987 in the heart of Rioja, where the winery quickly earned a reputation for producing some of the region’s most expressive Tempranillo-based wines. Cirsion is the estate’s flagship bottling, crafted only in exceptional vintages from specially selected old-vine Tempranillo grapes that display extraordinary ripeness and concentration. Aged in French oak and bottle matured for many years, Cirsion offers remarkable depth and complexity with layers of blackberries, dark cherries and cocoa.

PREMIUM WINES BY THE GLASS SERVED BY CORAVIN, CONTINUED

CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE, Beatus, Grenache, Syrah & Mourvèdre, 2022

64/320

- Winemaker, Todd Alexander, always dreamed of making wines in the Southern Rhone and a friendship between himself and Chateau de la Font Du Loup proprietor, Anne-Charlotte Mélia Bachas, made it come true. This wine is a stunning example of Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape, dense with fantastic purity of red fruits including ripe red currants, rose petals, and shades of cardamom. The palate is vibrant with terrific richness and mouthwatering acidity.

CABERNET SAUVIGNON, Pulido-Walker, Estate, Mt. Veeder, 2023

171/855

- Pulido-Walker is a premier Napa Valley Estate crafting 100% Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay from their 15 acres, high up on Prichard Hill. Not only is this Cabernet meticulously made, but it's crafted by Thomas Rivers Brown, the man responsible for producing over 35 perfect 100-point wines. This is a bigger, structured wine with brilliant black fruit, tobacco, iron and subtle smoke.

THE CABERNET FLIGHT

We are pleased to offer a truly one of a kind flight (2oz. Pours ea.) of Cabernet and Cabernet blends from the most renowned and prestigious regions on Earth: Napa Valley, Bordeaux and Tuscany. This experience is $230.

Please inquire with the sommelier about individual glass and bottle pricing.

ORNELLAIA, La Generosità, Toscana Superiore, 2021

Ornellaia was founded in 1981 by rule breaker, Marchese Antinori and the first vintage ever produced was in 1985. That bottling set the precedent for the new and adored « Super Tuscan » style. This blend contains no Sangiovese, but instead only Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc & Merlot.

SHAHER, Hillside Select, Cabernet Sauvignon, Stags Leap District, 2018

The first driving force behind this "cult wine" is the source- the rugged, sun-drenched, terraced vineyards of the Stags Leap District. The second driving force is the oak. Hillside Select undergoes 32 months of aging in 100% new French Oak which leads to it's velvety texture and muscular structure.

CHÂTEAU TOUR SAINT CHRISTOPHE, Merlot & Cabernet Franc, Saint-Émilion Grand Cru, 2020

The stunning, terraced vineyards Château Tour Saint Christophe are truly striking and picturesque thanks to their steep grade and mid-eighteenth century estate. The blend of 80% Merlot and 20% Cabernet Franc are grown organically and aged in various sizes of old and new French oak by talented winemaker, Jérôme Aguirre.

SPIRIT FLIGHTS

BOURBON NOT MADE IN KENTUCKY $45

High Wire, New Southern Revival Jimmy Red Corn, Charleston, SC
Old Soul, High Rye, Oxford, MS
Prichard's, Double Barreled, Kelso, TN

Despite popular belief, bourbon whiskey does not have to come from Kentucky. While Kentucky is renowned for their brown fire water, bourbon can be made anywhere in the United States. In the first six months of 2021, more than $161 million worth of bourbon was shipped from the United States to markets around the world. We aim to showcase some of our favorite bourbons not made in the great state of horses and bourbon.

THE CLASE AZUL FLIGHT $180

Clase Azul, Gold, Tequila
Clase Azul, San Louis Potosi, Mezcal
Clase Azul, Durango, Mezcal

The history of Clase Azul begins 25 years ago with a reposado tequila and an iconic ceramic bottle. Today, Clase Azul is represented in over 91 countries across the globe and we are proud to offer a flight of some of their more exclusive bottlings. The Gold bottling is a joven blend of plata, reposado and añejo that is aged in French and sherry casks, the Potosi represents a greener, brighter flavor of Mezcal and the Durango provides a darker, smokier flavor.

SCOTCHY, SCOTCH, SCOTCH $55

Scotch whisky, or, as it's more commonly known, scotch, is just whisky made in Scotland (and in a manner specified by Scottish law, they'll have you know). Don't be fooled by its concentrated geographical region: the Scots ship around 100 million cases of their "water of life" overseas every year. As you might then expect, scotch comes in an astounding number of varieties. Imbibe a few of our favorites from specific regions around the isle.

CALIFORNIA WINEMAKERS

ACCENDO CELLARS

- A winery that believes in the importance of family and building a legacy from the ground up. Owned and operated by the Araujo Family, formerly of the prestigious estate Araujo Wine Cellars, Jaime and brother, Greg Araujo, alongside parents, Bart and Daphne Araujo, are crafting wines of utmost quality in Napa Valley. They believe in sourcing from the greatest sites throughout the valley and collaborate with winemaking heavy weights Michel Rolland, Nigel Kinsman, Francoise Peschon and Steve Matthiasson to craft exquisite Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon.

ALBAN VINEYARDS

- John Alban is known for establishing the first winery in California to dedicate itself to only growing the grapes of the Rhône Valley of France. John has spent his life learning the vineyards of the Rhône as well as the wine making techniques that he in turn has brought back to the Edna Valley of California. His wines are benchmarks of California Rhône inspired wines and are amongst the most cherished wines in our collection.

DIAMOND CREEK

- Founded in 1968 by Al Brounstein, Diamond Creek was the first winery in California dedicated to a single variety, Cabernet Sauvignon. The estate was divided based on its three distinct soil types: the stony and cool Gravelly Meadow, the warm, north facing Red Rock Terrace and the pure, grey soil of Volcanic Hill. Each of the opulent Cabernets produced from these vineyards are beautifully terroir driven and unarguably quality focused.

DOMAINE DA LA COTE

- With Rajat Parr at the helm alongside winemaker, Sashi Moorman the vineyards and wines of Domaine de la Cote are a testament of place over process. Both Raj and Sashi are food and wine heavy weights. From cooking in top restaurants, to selling wine and writing books about their experiences, they are regarded as authorities in the wine world.

DUNN VINEYARDS

- A pioneer for Howell Mountain and Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon, Dunn Vineyards, founded by Randy and Lori Dunn, has been known for making great Cabernet since 1979. Three generations later and Dunn Vineyards remains a benchmark of Napa Valley and is a testament to the quality of the region.

CALIFORNIA WINEMAKERS

FAILLA WINES

- Failla's (Pronounced FAY-LA) eleven acres of estate vineyards are dedicated to cultivating Pinot Noir, Syrah and Chardonnay. Ehren Jordan's winemaking approach emphasizes hands-on farming and minimal intervention, aiming to produce wines that authentically express their terroir. His experience, including a transformative apprenticeship in the Rhône Valley, influences Failla's farming and winemaking choices. Failla sources Pinot Noir grapes from famed vineyards such as Hirsch Vineyard, Whistler Vineyard, Occidental Ridge, and even Seven Springs Vineyard in Oregon's Eola-Amity AVA.

FAVIA WINES

- Andy Erikson and Annie Favia are a true power couple when it comes to Napa wine. Annie diligently tends to the vines while Andy creates in the cellar. The two started Favia wines in 2003 in the 'cup and saucer' Coombsville area on the historic Carbone property. They follow biodynamic principles and have since their inception. Blackberry is proud to offer a myriad of white blends and single varietal reds from the award winning Favia team.

HIRSCH VINEYARDS

- Founded in 1980 by David Hirsch, his goal was to grow and vinify wines from site specific vineyards on the extreme Sonoma Coast. Today, Hirsch Vineyard's Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays have become the impetus of the Sonoma Coast style. David's daughter, Jasmine, has become a leader in the world of wine and has proudly carried on the legacy her father has built.

KONGSGAARD

- Fifth generation Napa natives, John and Maggy started the Kongsgaard wine endeavor planting the Judge vineyard to Chardonnay in the 1970's. The inaugural vintage was in 1996. Their son Alex and winemaker Evan Frazier partnered a decade later, and the production is limited to what these three can do with their own hands. The primary bottlings are their two Chardonnays- The Judge and the Napa Valley.

LAMBORN FAMILY VINEYARDS

- Deeply rooted in Howell Mountain of Napa, Bob Lamborn and his son Micheal have grown a site famous for top Zinfandel and Cabernet Sauvignon. Truly a family venture and now handed down to Michael's sons, Brian and Matt, this small family label produces heavy weight wines. The likes of Randy Dunn, of Dunn Vineyards, as well as Heidi Barrett, of Screaming Eagle and La Sirena, have been responsible for helping the Lamborn's make their wines.

CALIFORNIA WINEMAKERS

L'AVENTURE WINERY

- Stephan Asseo, vigneron of this Paso Robles winery, found his passion for wine in France where he and his family crafted wines in Bordeaux. Feeling restricted by the wine laws of Bordeaux, Stephan traveled the world looking for a vineyard site that was special and would allow him to find freedom of expression. That site made itself known during a trip to Paso Robles where Stephan fell in love with the unique terroir of the Templeton Gap.

LEWIS CELLARS

- Randy Lewis was a professional race car driver for 23 years before retiring to California with his wife and later, winery manager, Debbie. Randy got a taste for the lifestyle and fine wine of Burgundy and Bordeaux while racing in Europe and used his winnings to purchase his small Napa Valley property in 1992. In 1999, Randy's son, Dennis Bell joined the Lewis team and today he and winemaker, Josh Widaman produce exceptional examples of Bordeaux varietals.

LITTORAI

- Ted Lemon is a true trailblazer and an icon. In 1982 he became the first American to work as a winemaker and vineyard manager in Burgundy with Domaine Guy Roulot. He started Littorai in 1993, but is also the originator of the 'quality' over 'quantity' farming system in California. Littorai perfectly translates to "the coast" which embodies the spirit and finesse of these vineyard designate Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays.

MARTINELLI WINERY

- A winery with a deeply rooted family tree in California winemaking. Founded in the 1880's by Giuseppe and Luisa Martinelli, this winery has been handed down from generation to generation. Known for powerhouse examples of Zinfandel from their prestigious vineyard, Jackass Hill as well as serious Pinot Noirs and Chardonnays, these wines have stood the test of time.

PAUL HOBBS

- Paul Hobbs started his career as an oak aging specialist in Napa Valley working for the famous, Robert Mondavi. After a stint at Opus One and Simi Winery he set out on his own in 1991. Paul Hobbs is truly the definition of an icon. He uses only sustainable farming techniques, native yeasts, bi-weekly batonnage and plenty of new French oak. His wines are produced unfiltered and unfiltered as well.

PEAY VINEYARDS

- Andy, Nick and Vanessa Peay are a dynamic trio who craft great wines on the Sonoma Coast of California. Their humble estate vineyards produce wines that showcase a true sense of place and their approach to winemaking is sustainable with undue manipulation. Nick manages the estate vineyards, while his wife, Vanessa, oversees the winemaking, leaving Andy in charge of sales, marketing and building relationships between the winery and its supporters.

CALIFORNIA WINEMAKERS

PRIDE MOUNTAIN VINEYARDS

- Perched high over Napa and Sonoma, the vineyards and wines of Pride Mountain are some of the best in California. At 2,100 feet elevation, The Pride family farms on some of the most un hospitable terrain in all of Napa on the top of Spring Mountain. The family makes a wide range of wines but its reserve bottlings of Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay are the most impressive.

RIDGE VINEYARDS

- A storied California winery that finds its humble beginnings in 1892 with the emergence of the Monte Bello Vineyard. Its wines today rank amongst the best and most important Cabernet Sauvignons in the world. Paul Draper, head winemaker from 1969 until 2016 propelled the estate into fame and is considered one of the most important wine authorities of our time.

RUDD VINEYARDS

- Founded in 1996 by Leslie and Susan Rudd in the heart of Oakville, Rudd Estate is now headed by their daughter, Samantha. Samatha promised her late father that she would be a good steward of the land and focus on sustainability, making the estate even better for the next generation. After returning from her education at Chateau Margaux and Spottswode Estate, she decided to go organic and now meticulously farms Cabernet Sauvignon and Sauvignon Blanc on the hillsides of Mt. Veeder and Napa Valley.

SAXUM VINEYARDS

- A winery that has become a pillar to the community of winemaking in Paso Robles. At Saxum, Rhone Varietals take center stage and show the full potential of Paso Robles. Justin Smith strives to make the best possible expressions of his wines by caring for the land, restricting yields to a miniscule amount and taking a unique approach to each wine he makes.

SHAFER VINEYARDS

- John Shafer accomplished so much in his life. He's responsible for creating the Stag's Leap District AVA, his Cabernet's have received high praises by critics since his first release, and in 2004, his winery became the first fully solar powered winery in Napa and Sonoma. In 1982 John asked his son, Doug, to join the team as winemaker and in 2010 they accepted the James Beard Foundation's "Wine and Spirits Professionals of the Year" award.

SPOTTSWOODE WINERY

- A site that can trace its beginning to 1882 with its founder George Schoenwald. In 1972, this prestigious estate was acquired by the Novak family and has remained with this family to this day. The Novak's methodology to winemaking is first and foremost focused on the health of the vineyards, ensuring organic principles are applied. Their expressions of Sauvignon Blanc and Cabernet Sauvignon are of the highest quality and can be considered quintessential to the Napa Valley.

CALIFORNIA WINEMAKERS

TABLAS CREEK VINEYARD

- A pioneer for the region of Paso Robles, Tablas Creek is known for some of the greatest Rhône inspired wines in California. Two of the great wine authorities of the world, the Perrin Family of Château de Beaucastel and the Haas Family of Vineyard Brands, forged a relationship in 1989 that paved the way for Paso Robles to be recognized as one of the great wine making regions of the world.

WILLIAMS-SELYEM

- For Ed Selyem and Burt Williams, making wine was just a hobby, but their hobby soon turned into a full-blown occupation after their wine won the Sweepstakes Award at the 1987 California State fair. Williams-Selyem would soon after have one of the first waiting lists for wine AND have the first Pinot Noir in the state to retail for $100. Williams-Selyem is truly one of a kind. Fermentations are started from a yeast strain that Ed and Burt isolated themselves and all wines are aged in François Frères barrels.

WASHINGTON & OREGON WINEMAKERS

ANTICA TERRA

- Maggie Harrison made a tenacious declaration one day that sent her into the open arms of Elaine and Manfred Krankl of the cult winery, Sine Qua Non. In 2005 Maggie accepted the job as winemaker of Antica Terra and moved to the rocky hillsides of Eola-Amity in the Willamette Valley. The Antica Terra wines showcase the true terroir of their 40 acre hillside where the soil is a fractured mixture of sandstone and alluvium with fossilized oyster shells sown between.

BEAUX FRÈRES

- In 1990 Michael Etzel sold his first crop of Pinot Noir grapes to Ken Wright and Dick Ponzi. This purchase sparked the flame that is Beaux Frères. Today, Mike D. Etzel marks the second generation of winemakers and continues his father's pursuit of the purest expression of the vineyard. Beaux Frères uses indigenous yeasts, spontaneous fermentation, and reduces the wine's contact with oxygen to produce their one of a kind Pinot Noirs.

BERGSTRÖM WINES

- A leader of biodynamic winemaking in Willamette, father and son team, John and Josh Bergström make shining examples of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay. After training in enology in Burgundy, France, Josh returned home where his father and mother bought a humble plot of vineyard land in Dundee. Since 1999, Josh has been making ultra-premium Pinot Noir and Chardonnay on the hillside estate vineyards of the Willamette Valley.

WASHINGTON & OREGON WINEMAKERS

CAYUSE VINEYARDS

- Christophe Baron, aka the “Bionic Frog”, is the vigneron behind this prized winery. Christophe, a Frenchman whose family is rooted in Champagne visited the small wine growing region, Walla Walla Valley where he fell in love with a few acres of stone covered earth. Over the past 20 years, Christophe has made it his mission to craft food-friendly wines of incredible depth, individuality and character—all from fruit grown entirely using biodynamic farming methods.

KEN WRIGHT CELLARS

- Ken Wright owes his pursuit of wine to a humble beginning in Kentucky where he worked at a restaurant that gave him exposure to fine wines of the world, ultimately encouraging him to attend winemaking school, UC Davis in California. From there, Ken worked tirelessly at great California estates before realizing the immense opportunities that existed in Oregon. Finally, in 1994, Ken was able to establish his winery which has become a leader in the region, producing the greatest single vineyard expressions of Pinot Noirs in the Willamette Valley.

LEONETTI CELLAR

- Leonetti Cellar was the first commercial winery of the Walla Walla Valley founded in 1977 by Gary Figgins and his uncles. Today the winery has been handed down to Gary’s son, Chris. Chris works to continue the mission his Father set forth which was to forever push to make improvements in the vineyards and the wines. Through the time spent with his uncles and father, Chris acquired a certain perspective and reverence for his family heritage that guides him to this day.

THE EYRIE VINEYARDS

- Founder David Lett at 24 years of age held a degree in viticulture, philosophy, and with eight months of intensive research in European vineyards was convinced that the climate of Willamette Valley was perfect for growing Pinot Noir and Chardonnay outside of Burgundy. On February 22, 1965 David established the modern era of winegrowing in the Willamette Valley when he planted the first vines in the Dundee Hills of Willamette Valley. The vineyard name was inspired by a pair of red-tailed hawks who made their nest (or “eyrie”) in the fir trees at the top of the vineyard site.

FRENCH WINEMAKERS

CLAUDE DUGAT

- Considered to be a top domaine in Gevrey-Chambertin, Domaine Claude Dugat has captivated the world with its expressions of Pinot Noir. Claude's approach to winemaking is rooted in organics, terroir and family. Since 2015, Claude has turned over the domaine to his son, Bertrand, and daughter, Laetitia, in hopes to continue the family's deep and long lived connection to Burgundy.

DAUVISSAT

- One of Chablis' prestigious winemakers, Vincent Dauvissat has gained a cult following and has earned a rightful spot as one of the greatest producers of Chardonnay in the world. With the help of his father, Rene, this father and son team farm the greatest premier cru and grand vineyard sites along the hillsides of Chablis.

DOMAINE DE LA VIEILLE JULIENNE

- Jean Paul Daumen, the vigneron of this storied Châteauneuf du Pape domaine approaches his vineyards and wines with preciseness. Since its beginnings in the 1940's starting with Jean Paul's father to now with the next generation in line, this domaine has put two things above all others, wine is made in the vineyard and emphasizing the dexterity of Grenache.

DOMAINE DU PEGAU

- An historic producer of great Châteauneuf du Pape owned by Laurence Feraud and father Paul. Paul Feraud was responsible for bringing the domaine into the modern age in the 70s and 80s and now Laurence has taken over managing the estate. Laurence makes some of the most traditional in style red and white Châteauneuf du Pape, staying true to the art of blending grapes.

DOMAINE DEL LA JANASSE

- Started by Aimé Sabon in 1967, this second-generation estate combines the best of both traditional and modern techniques to craft a collection of truly riveting Châteauneuf-du-Pape (both red and white) and Côtes du Rhône wine. Current winemakers and brother/sister team, Christophe and Isabelle, take pride in carrying on their father's legacy while providing a perfect example of generational sustainability.

DOMAINE HENRI BOILLOT

- A celebrated domaine in the village of Meursault responsible for crafting Chardonnay of great purity, finesse, texture and minerality. Two generations of the Boillot family are at the helm, and they believe two words define what they aim to do with their vineyards and wines, "Passion and Precision." Extremely limited and profoundly delicious, Henri's and Guillaume's wines are coveted in the collection.

FRENCH WINEMAKERS

DOMAINE PERROT-MINOT

- A great Burgundy domaine tucked away in the sleepy village of Morey-St.-Denis where Christophe Perrot-Minot vinifies some of the greatest examples of Pinot Noir in the world. Learning from his father, Henri, Christophe practices precise vineyard management and elegant winemaking. His wines are focused, graceful and complete while being produced with a biodynamic philosophy.

CHÂTEAU DE BEAUCASTEL

- Currently owned and operated by the fifth generation of the Perrin family, Château de Beaucastel has consistently been a pioneer for winemakers in the Rhône Valley. They were one of the first to transition to organic farming in 1950, and again one of the first to transition to complete biodynamic farming in 1974. Beaucastel continues to produce some of the most prized Grenache/Syrah/Mourvèdre blends within the heralded Châteauneuf-du-Pape region.

DENIS MORTET

- Denis Mortet began his wine career in 1956 when he turned his father's one hectare of vines into 10 hectares of vines spread out amongst 14 different appellations in Burgundy. Denis Mortet is currently on their third generation and is now led by Denis Mortet's son and daughter, Arnaud and Clemence, as well as his widow, Laurence. The Mortet family continues to grow, but carries on the tradition of using 100% new French Oak barrels in every wine, including Village levels.

DOMAINE LEROY

- Since the mid-1800's, the Leroy (pronounced le-wah) family has been making exceptional and highly esteemed wines within Burgundy. Lalou Bize-Leroy established the Domaine in 1988 with the acquisitions of estates in Vosne-Romanee and Gevrey-Chambertin. Lalou embraces biodynamic farming practices and the belief that every aspect of the vineyard gives the wine life.

DOMAINE TEMPIER

- Brought to its rightful glory by Lucien Peyraud, Domaine Tempier has become the impetus of wine estates in the region of Bandol. Starting in 1936, Lucien worked tirelessly to get the vineyards and region protected by AOC status and bring the grape, Mourvèdre, back into the limelight. Rightfully so, it has become the benchmark of Provencal wines.

DOMAINE VACHERON

- Established as one of the great domaines of Sancerre, the Vacheron family are producing the archetype of Loire Valley Sauvignon Blanc. Managed by two cousins, Jean-Laurent and Jean-Dominique, the sons of the Vacheron brothers that created the domaine's importance in the region, have become the apogee of sustainability and biodynamic farming in the region.

FRENCH WINEMAKERS

DOMAINE WEINBACH

- A top domaine in Alsace, France, the Faller family produces one of the world's most age worthy examples of Riesling as well as Gewurztraminer, Muscat and Pinot Gris. Overseen by Catherine Faller and her son Théo, this important Alsace domaine makes wines of pedigree from the great Grand Cru sites on the hills of Kayserberg.

EGLY-OURIET

- Francis Egly, a fourth generation vigneron in the village of Ambonnay, stands proudly atop the list of great Champagne producers. Egly-Ouriet was one of the first producers to emerge during the rise of the grower Champagne movement and leads the way presently. His champagnes can be characterized into a class of their own, expressing powerful, intense and concentrated flavors with Pinot Noir being the primary grape in all of his bottlings.

JEAN LOUIS CHAVE

- Few names are more imminent in the world of wine than Jean Louis Chave. Chave's renowned expressions of Hermitage are unrivaled and remains the inspiration for several of the world's Syrah producers. Sixteen generations can be traced to this top domaine and many consider the family to be of France's wine royalty. Jean Louis highlights the purest form of terroir in his wines along with purity, elegance and power.

MICHEL CHAPOUTIER

- Arguably, one of the world's greatest winemakers whose presence in the Rhône Valley has molded the region's notoriety. Chapoutier's Ermitage wines are stunning single vineyard expressions of Syrah and Marsanne. They often receive top accolades each vintage and are extremely age worthy. Michel's motto "do and hope" is reflective in his ventures.

MOREY-COFFINET

- This certified organic winery views their 8.5 hectares of vines as part of the family. Starting in the late 1970's, Michel Morey and his wife Fabienne created the Côte de Beaune estate with the philosophy of respect in the vineyard and in the winery. Today, Thibault Morey continues to raise the bar on quality with his powerful and hedonistic expressions of both white and red wine.

ITALIAN WINEMAKERS

BRUNO GIACOSA

- Shrouded in prestige and glory, the Barolos and Barbaresco made by Bruno Giacosa are in class above all others. Bruno is a self-proclaimed traditionalist with a simple approach, let the wines do the talking and was quoted as saying “Winemaking involves a great many small decisions, each affecting the next. One can only hope to get them right, to capture what there was in the grapes to begin with.” Now into his late eighties, Bruno still remains at the helm with no signs of slowing down with protégé, Dante Scaglione by his side.

CANALICCHIO DI SOPRA

- Founded by Primo Pacenti in 1962, this Brunello estate has become synonymous with high quality. Primo, a harbinger for the creation of the Consorzio del Vino Brunello di Montalcino, and now his three grandchildren collaboratively work the vineyards. The wines are respectful of tradition but are uniting their traditional philosophy with innovation along with love and respect of their village and heritage.

GAJA

- Angelo Gaja, the godfather of Barbaresco, is known for producing some of Italy’s most profound wines. Currently, his daughters help to manage the family’s estates in Piedmont and in Tuscany. No matter if it is Nebbiolo, Sangiovese or a unique blend, the wines of Gaja are immediately distinctive and rank among the best wines in the world.

GRAVNER

- From a small village in Venezia Giulia along the Italian/Slavonian border, Josko Gravner has slowly become the standard for small yield, biodynamic, natural wines. Josko embraces biodynamic techniques, but takes it a step further by fermenting his wine in ancient clay amphorae, sometimes buried in the ground. Gravner’s orange wines have a cult following and are some of the most unique expressions of natural wine.

MASSOLINO

- Giovanni Massolino is one of the great pioneers of Barolo. His wines were thought to have brought new life, energy and prestige to Serralunga d’Alba. Today, the estate remains a family venture with Franco and Roberto leading the vineyard management and winemaking. Their Barolo Cru expressions are the jewels of their lineup of wines.

VALDICAVA

- Since 1987 Vincenzo Abbruzzese has been making some of the most serious, powerful and age worthy expressions of Sangiovese in all of Tuscany. The Valdicava estate lies within the rolling hills of Montalcino right beside the grand ‘Madonna del Piano’ vineyard. The humble estate continues to gain critical acclaim as winemakers strive to recreate something similar to the magnitude of Valdicava Brunello.

SPANISH & PORTUGUESE WINEMAKERS

ALVARO PALACIOS

- Alvaro Palacios studied enology in Bordeaux while working under the tutelage of Jean-Pierre Moueix at the renowned Château Pétrus. His studies made him understand the importance of terroir, which is why he was immediately attracted to the steep hills and rocky soil of Spain's Priorat region. Alvaro's most coveted wine, L'Ermita, has had a cult-like following since 1995 and continues to be one of the most sought-after wines from the Priorat, even rivaling Peter Sisseck's Dominio de Pingus.

ARTADI

- In 1981, Artadi began as a passionate group of winegrowers in Alava, Rioja when they decided to combine their knowledge of the vines and resources in order to produce the best wines they possibly could. Artadi is currently owned by one of the founding families, the Lacalle's, in combination with the Loarden family. They follow organic and biodynamic farming practices in all of their vineyards which allows them to focus on the very best single vineyard expressions of Tempranillo within Rioja.

CLOS ERASMUS

- Considerably the greatest wine coming from Priorat, Spain, and grown and vinified by our dear friends, Daphne Glorian and Eric Solomon. Garnacha and Syrah are farmed meticulously in the vineyards that then perform remarkably well in the bottle, often receiving 100-point scores. This relationship is one of the most important to us and to the collection.

DOMINIO DE PINGUS

- Danish winemaker turned visionary, Peter Sisseck, has expressed his vision through two well done wine productions; Pingus, after a childhood nickname, and Flor de Pingus, the latter which focuses on rented parcels of old Tempranillo. These head trained, Tempranillo vineyards are located in the northern Spanish plateau, Ribera del Duero. No other wine in the world today shares the Pingus signature or the cult following.

SPANISH & PORTUGUESE WINEMAKERS

DANIEL GÓMEZ JIMÉNEZ-LANDI

- Dani Landi comes from a family of grape growers from Mèntrida, Spain. At a young age, his family's influence sparked a love of winemaking and growing vines. Little did he know that he would eventually be responsible for unveiling the raw potential of Garnacha grown in the high elevation sites within the Sierra de Gredos mountain range. Today, Dani manages two estates in Gredos, his family estate listed above, but also Comando G. Partnering with a childhood friend, Fernando Garcia, Comando G makes Garnacha that can rival the Pinot Noirs of Burgundy and the Syrahs of the Northern Rhône.

NIEPOORT

- A historic name in the Douro Valley of Portugal, the port wines of Niepoort are considered to be some of the greatest in the world. Five generations of wine making later, Dirk Niepoort has inherited the family venture and has continued to protect his family's namesake but is also crafting some of Portugal's most modern and innovative table wines. His dry white and red wines coming from the Douro, Dao and Bairrada are some of Portugal's best modern wines, yet still honor history and tradition.

NIT DE NIN

- Known as the "Most important winemaking woman in the World", Ester Nin's humble, tiny production winery focuses on two single vineyards in one of the highest sites in Priorat. Daughter of a Penedes wine grower, viticulture has become a way of life for Ester. Her three-hectare parcel of old vine Garnaxta and Carinyena is a testament to her ability of truly showcasing terroir. Farming is done biodynamically, grapes are hand harvested, and naturally fermented. The wines are elegant, refined, and ready to be aged for the years to come.

R. LOPEZ DE HEREDIA

- Rioja, a classic wine region in Spain, owes a lot of its prestige to the doings of this estate. No other bodega honors tradition and heritage as much as Heredia. They proudly proclaim to only make wines from their vineyards that date back to 1877. Dedicated to Tempranillo and Viura, Heredia's top wine, Viña Tondonia, stands as one of the benchmarks as both a red wine and white wine respectively.

GERMAN & AUSTRIAN WINEMAKERS

FX PICHLER

- This renowned Wachau winery has been in the hands of the Pichler family for five generations. Their forefathers took meticulous care of the same Riesling and Grüner Veltliner vines before them. Concentrated on the southern side of the Danube river, you will find the steep, 13th century terraces lined with these noble grape white grape varieties. These vines create monumental wines with a mouth filling presence that reflect the soil, growing year and microclimate.

JOH. JOS. PRÜM

- The Rieslings of J.J. Prüm are worldly renowned and are considerably the most age worthy wines in the world. The Prüm family dates back to the 1100's where they made a home in the Mosel Valley village of Wehlen. Generations later, Dr. Manfred Prüm and wife, Katharina own the estate and continue to produce world class Riesling from the vineyards of Wehlener Sonnenuhr and Graacher Himmelreich.

PETER JACOB KÜHN

- Beginning as early as 1786, Peter Jacob Kühn has been at the cornerstone of German winemaking. The estate has been located on the right bank of the river Rhine for more than 230 years. The goal of this family-owned winery is to preserve their ancestor's traditions while still employing modern viticultural techniques. Biodynamic and organic practices are now producing Rieslings with clarity complemented with a calm and effortless force.

RUDI PICHLER

- Rudi Pichler considers himself to be a wine caretaker rather than a winemaker. Coming from a family of generational producers dating back to 1731, Pichler has produced wines that are considered to be the purest expressions of Riesling and Grüner Veltliner within Austria's Wachau regions. This is quite a feat seeing that the family's vineyards are planted on steeply pitched terraces above the winding Danube river, which makes farming very dangerous.
